

A Taste of Britain and Manners to Go Present:

Manners and Tea for Mommy and Me

Wednesday, July 18, 2012 • 4 pm

Featuring Lisa Richey of MANNERS
ToGo

Afternoon tea is a great opportunity to teach manners and confidence. Children and adults will have a great time sipping tea and eating finger sandwiches while learning good table manners, social skills, and the history of afternoon tea.

Topics Include:

- How to properly pour tea
- How to hold a teacup
- How to eat a scone with jam
- The history of afternoon tea
- Napkin etiquette
- How to set the table
- Good Posture
- Conversation skills
- Eye contact
- Handshakes
- How to be a friend
- Party manners
- How to introduce yourself and others
- The importance of please and thank you
- How to interrupt politely

A Taste of Britain

503 W. Lancaster Ave., Wayne, PA 19087 • 610-971-0390

Price Includes:

- A special afternoon tea menu, including tax and gratuity
- 1 hour of fun etiquette instruction
- A party favor for you to take home

$60 per Mother-Daughter pair • $25 per additional child
Reservations and a deposit are required.

